Canadian Astronaut coming to town…

The City of North Bay, in co-operation with the Canadian Space Agency (CSA), will be hosting Canadian Astronaut Jeremy Hansen on April 17, 2015. Students from Northern Ontario will have the opportunity to hear Hansen, an Ontario-born and raised astronaut, speak about his career path, training, experiences and his on-going work at the CSA and with National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). Canadore College will be hosting at the Aviation Campus

More information about Jeremy Hansen is available online at www.asc-csa.gc.ca/eng/astronauts/biohansen.asp

Ministry of North Development and Mines
Summer Student Subsidy

This summer consider hiring a student. The Provincial Government is investing in student employment in Northern Ontario through the Summer Jobs Service program delivered by the Ministry of Northern Development and Mines. The Summer Jobs Service can help you by providing a $2.00 subsidy per hour incentive to hire young people. You can receive funding of up to a maximum of 560 hours per position, for example, 35 hours per week for 16 weeks at $2.00 per hour. Subsidized placements must not begin before April 1, 2015 and must not extend past September 30, 2015. There is no minimum number of weeks. Students must be between the ages of 15 and 30 upon commencement of employment. Online application forms can be found at: http://ontario.ca/northernsummerjobs

You also have the option to print your completed application and submit it to MNDM North Bay office by fax at 705-494-4069. Applications must be received before April 30, 2015. You can contact Dom Marleau at 705-494-4184 or dominique.marleau@ontario.ca if you have any questions.

North Bay Kiwanis Festival of Music

The North Bay Kiwanis Music Festival is celebrating its 50th Anniversary from April 13-24. Kiwanis International is celebrating its Centennial, 100 Years of Service 1915-2015. Three local venues are being used: Calvin Presbyterian Church, Chippewa Secondary School and Christ Church Anglican. Our Awards Evening Finale will take place Saturday May 09.

50th Anniversary Program Advertising: Half page Ads for $125 or full page ads for $199 Please contact Ralph Celentano at ralphc@vianet.ca

Friends of the Festival: Contributions starting at $25 is acknowledged as a Friend or Patron of the Festival for the almost 400 entries who look to receive cash bursaries up to $100 (Kiwanis Music Festival is a registered charity - Charitable Receipts avail) receiving recognition in the Festival Program. Accessibility and the AODA
MYTHS, PERCEPTIONS AND REALITIES

Join the Human Resources Professionals Association and accessibility expert Ellen Waxman for a seminar detailing the real facts on your organization's Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act AODA obligations: what's required, what's not, what needs to happen when, and what happens if an organization is audited or non-compliant. Learn tools and resources to help you comply, avoid fines and raise awareness about accessibility and disability in your workplace.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- What the law does and does not require
- Differences /similarities between the AODA and the Ontario Human Rights Code
- Disability myths and realities and how to raise awareness in the workplace
- Work with real case scenarios
- Easy to use tools and resources

Where: North Bay Best Western Hotel & Conference Centre
When: April 28, 2015

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
Managers, HR professionals and consultants, anyone interested in inclusion or responsible for implementing the AODA.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER: ELLEN WAXMAN
Ellen Waxman is Ontario's leading expert on the AODA. As former Assistant Deputy Minister for the Accessibility Directorate of Ontario, she was in charge of developing the AODA regulations and standards, overseeing compliance tools and resources, leading consultations across all sectors and developing the AODA compliance reporting system.
